- Once you use Poké Transporter to transfer Pokémon from your Pokémon™ Black, Pokémon White, Pokémon Black 2, or Pokémon White 2 game, the Pokémon will disappear from that game and cannot be transferred back.
- To access your Boxes in Pokémon Bank, the Nintendo Network™ ID on your Nintendo 3DS system is used. Please note that a system with a different Nintendo Network ID will connect to a different Pokémon Bank.
- ◆ To learn about your Nintendo Network ID, see the electronic manual for System Settings.
- Poké Transporter can no longer be used if your Pokémon Bank pass expires. For info about how long Pokémon Bank passes last, see the electronic manual for Pokémon Bank.
- This application does not support direct communication with Pokémon X, Pokémon Y, or any other Pokémon games. This application does not work with any peripheral accessories.

3 Internet

This software supports the Nintendo Network™.

This application allows you to transfer Pokémon you have obtained in your Pokémon Black, Pokémon White, Pokémon Black 2, and Pokémon White 2 games to your Pokémon Bank.

- ◆ Refer to your Operations Manual for information about connecting your system to the Internet.

About Nintendo Network

Nintendo Network is the name of Nintendo's network service that enables users to enjoy games and other content via the Internet. It provides access to a wide range of network services, including the ability to play games with people around the world, purchase and download games/content, and exchange images and messages.

Protecting Your Privacy

- To protect your privacy, do not give out personal information, such as last name, phone number, birth date, age, school, e-mail, or home address, when communicating with others.
- Friend codes are part of a system that allows you to play with people you know. If you exchange friend codes with strangers, there is a risk you could share information with people you do not know or exchange messages that contain offensive language. We therefore recommend that you do not give your friend codes to people you don't know.

- Do not engage in unethical practices, such as modifying game data, which may cause trouble for your fellow players. If you are found to have engaged in such practices, your access to this service may be suspended or you may face other disciplinary actions.
- The game server may become temporarily unavailable without warning, due to maintenance required due to bugs or for any other reason. In some cases, game-related services may be retired in the future. For more details, visit the official Nintendo webpage.
- We bear no responsibility for any damage that arises due to either your connecting to the Internet or being unable to connect to the Internet.

Poké Transporter is an application that allows you to transfer Pokémon caught in Pokémon Black, Pokémon White, Pokémon Black 2, and Pokémon White 2 games to your Pokémon Bank on the same system.

- ◆ For info about Pokémon Bank, please see the electronic manual for Pokémon Bank.

The system will not go into Sleep Mode except at the title screen.

Transferring Pokémon (Internet)

Connecting to the Internet allows you to transfer Pokémon to your Pokémon Bank.

How to Use

- 1 Have a Nintendo 3DS system with an SD Card to which Poké Transporter has been downloaded.
 - 2 Insert a Pokémon Black, Pokémon White, Pokémon Black 2, or Pokémon White 2 Game Card in the Nintendo 3DS system's Game Card slot, and start Poké Transporter.
 - 3 Tap YES to transfer Pokémon to your Pokémon Bank on the screen shown on the right.
- ◆ You can transfer Pokémon from BOX 1 (the first Box) in your Pokémon Black, Pokémon White, Pokémon Black 2, or Pokémon White 2 game.
 - ◆ You can take the transferred Pokémon from the Transport Box in your Pokémon Bank to a Pokémon X or Pokémon Y game.

- The transferred Pokémon will disappear from your Pokémon Black, Pokémon White, Pokémon Black 2, or Pokémon White 2 game, and cannot be transferred back.
- You cannot transfer problematic Pokémon. If you use Pokémon Bank and/or Poké Transporter to transfer Pokémon that have been created by any means that has not been approved by Nintendo, The Pokémon Company, and its affiliates, you forfeit your right to use Pokémon Bank and/or Poké Transporter.

Saving Your Data

Once the transfer of Pokémon to your Pokémon Bank is complete, the data will be automatically saved, and you'll be returned to the title screen.

Q: Can I transfer Pokémon with Berries or other items to Pokémon Bank?

A: No, you can't deposit Pokémon that are holding Berries or other items. Please make sure to return any held items to your Bag before depositing your Pokémon. If you try to deposit Pokémon that are holding Berries or other items, the items will be removed and sent to your Bag. If your Bag is full, the items will disappear.

Q: Can I use Poké Transporter as soon as it finishes downloading?

A: You need to reach the point in your Pokémon Black, Pokémon White, Pokémon Black 2, or Pokémon White 2 game where you receive your Pokédex.
